

Dean's Directive No. 4 / 2017

on fee for studies in Bachelor's degree and Master's degree programmes taught in foreign language

In accordance with the Article 11, para. 1 (b), Item bb) and with the Article 11, para. 8 of the Status of the Czech Technical University in Prague approved on 31 May 2017 by the Academic Senate of the CTU I set the following fees for studies in a study programme taught in foreign language for each started semester accordingly:

- 55 000 CZK per semester (in accordance with Appendix No. 5 of the Status of the Czech Technical University in Prague, para. 3) for students enrolled in the Bachelor's degree programme "B3710 – Technology in Transportation and Telecommunications" taught in foreign language. Fee payment details as well as study conditions are set in the study contract between the Czech Technical University in Prague Faculty of Transportation Sciences and the student. According to Section 45, para. 4 of the Higher Education Act), as amended (the "Act"), the graduates of bachelor's degree programmes are awarded the academic title Bachelor (abbreviated to "Bc.", written before the name). The graduates receive university diploma issued by the Czech Technical University in Prague in Czech and English languages.
- 66 000 CZK per semester (in accordance with Appendix No. 5 of the Status of the Czech Technical University in Prague, para. 3) for students enrolled in the Master's degree programme "N3710 – Technology in Transportation and Telecommunications" taught in foreign language with the exception of students enrolled in the joint-degrees study fields "3711T004 – IS – Intelligent Transport Systems" and "3708T017 – PL – Air Traffic Control and Management". Fee payment details as well as study conditions are set in the study contract between the Czech Technical University in Prague Faculty of Transportation Sciences and the student. According to Section 46, para. 4 (a) of the Act, the graduates of master's degree programmes are awarded the academic title "engineer" (abbreviated to "Ing.", written before the name). The graduates receive university diploma issued by the Czech Technical University in Prague in Czech and English languages.
- 500 EUR per semester (2 000 EUR in total for standard period of study in accordance with the international agreement "Educational Cooperation and Exchange Agreement on a Double Degree Program" signed on 30 September 2015 between the Czech Technical University in Prague Faculty of Transportation Sciences and Linköpings universitet – Tekniska högskolan) for students enrolled in the Master's joint-degrees study field "3711T004 – IS – Intelligent Transport Systems" taught in English and with the international agreement "Bilateral Agreement on Double Degree Master's Program" signed on 7 September 2016 between the Czech Technical University in Prague Faculty of Transportation Sciences and Institut Teknologi Bandung – Fakultas Teknik Mesin dan Dirgantara) for students enrolled at CTU in Prague Faculty of Transportation Sciences primarily in the Master's joint-degrees study field "3708T004 – PL – Air Traffic Control and Management" taught in English and, according to Section 47a of the Act, in collaboration with a foreign university that offers similar study field. Collaboration conditions are set in the above mentioned international agreements between universities. Fee payment details as well as study conditions are set in the study contract between the Czech Technical University in Prague Faculty of Transportation Sciences and the student. The graduates of master's degree programmes are awarded the academic title "engineer" (abbreviated to "Ing.", written before the name) as well as, according to Section 46, para. 4 of the Act and legislation in force in the foreign country, academic degree from the foreign university. The university diploma issued by the Czech Technical University in Prague in Czech and English languages mentions the collaborating foreign university.

- no fee (in accordance with the international agreement "Bilateral Agreement on Double Degree Master's Program" signed on 7 September 2016 between the Czech Technical University in Prague Faculty of Transportation Sciences and Institut Teknologi Bandung – Fakultas Teknik Mesin dan Dirgantara) for students enrolled at Institut Teknologi Bandung – Fakultas Teknik Mesin dan Dirgantara primarily in the Master's joint-degrees study field "3708T004 – PL – Air Traffic Control and Management" taught in English and, according to Section 47a of the Act, in collaboration with a foreign university that offers similar study field. Collaboration conditions are set in the above mentioned international agreements between universities. Study conditions are set in the study contract between the Czech Technical University in Prague Faculty of Transportation Sciences and the student. The graduates of master's degree programmes are awarded the academic title "engineer" (abbreviated to "Ing.", written before the name) as well as, according to Section 46, para. 4 of the Act and legislation in force in the foreign country, academic degree from the foreign university. The university diploma issued by the Czech Technical University in Prague in Czech and English languages mentions the collaborating foreign university.

The Dean's Directive No. 2 / 2015 on fee for studies in Bachelor's degree and Master's degree programmes taught in foreign language from 30 September 2015 as amended is made obsolete.

Prof. Dr. Miroslav Svítek, MSc

m. p.

Dean